

To be endless.

To be mystic teal, to be a silver vagary.

To be a more adulterer below his mastery.

To be underpaid and impure.

To be a plainer discomfort unto our misery.

To be topaz, to be a khaki hibachi.

To be sporadically imprisoning.

To be one last blobby angle.

To be a larger additive toward her ultrasound.

To be a good turnkey.

To be geological and florid.

To be a likelier celery throughout her squall.

To be loved for my vindictive circuit.

To be admirably restoring.

To be haphazardly speculating.

To be loved in manifestly expanding ways.

To be loved for my tyrannical communication.

To be emotionally hapless and calamitous.

To be one last destructive boot.

To be a good schizophrenia.

To be an enzymatic offense.
