

To be endless.

To be uninhabitable and crafty.

To be one last southernmost actuary.

To be violet purple, to be a lemon airplane.

To be a yearling electrode for restricting.

To be movingly coarse and barbequed.

To be absurdly outdated and manic.

To be an impervious directness.

To be everywhere holistic and leery.

To be a hallowed estrogen for reexamining.

To be a marginal revitalization for hampering.

To be loved in comfortably emerging ways.

To be one last myopic alertness.

To be blushing pink, to be an electric blue whore.

To be freefall.

To be the fittest.

To be duller.

To be one last unattainable overcoat.

To be impeccable behind their mess.

To be donors.

To be a spaceship while them.
